Who will be picking your child up from Choir?

Are there any medical or other conditions we should be aware of?

It is a blessing to have so many children in our choirs. However, discipline has become an issue on more than one occasion. I am very grateful for the two adults that help me during the choir hour and the babysitter that we hire for after choir to watch the kids. I would ask for your support in talking with your children about their behavior while they are here on Wednesday afternoons. It hasn't happened often, but there have been times that I have had to ask my adult helpers to take a child out of rehearsal for continued bad behavior. When this happens I will call you to let you know the circumstances so you can discuss this with them at home. Our babysitter has done a great job, and I would like to be able to give her your contact information as well, in case she would need to contact you about your child's behavior or possibly picking your child up early. Thank you for your help and support.

At times we take pictures of the children's choirs and put them on our church website without the names of the children. Please sign here if we have permission to put a picture that may include your child on our website.
